

Electromagnetic Compatibility - Sources of Information

- ❑ The EC Electromagnetic Compatibility Directive has been implemented into UK law by the Electromagnetic Compatibility Regulations 1992 (SI 1992/2372) and the Electromagnetic Compatibility (Amendment) Regulations 1994 (SI 1994/3080). Copies of the Regulations are available from HMSO bookshops and accredited agents or from the HMSO Publications Centre on 0171 873 9090. Fax: 0171 873 8200.

Explanatory booklets

- ❑ The DTI booklet Product standards - Electromagnetic Compatibility: Guidance notes on UK Regulations (May 1995) gives comprehensive information on the Electromagnetic Compatibility Regulations 1992 which implement in the UK the EC Electromagnetic Compatibility Directive. In that booklet:
  - the scope of the legislation is given on page 5;
  - transitional arrangements on page 5;
  - general requirements on page 9;
  - How to comply on pages 9-12;
  - CE marking on page 13;
  - enforcement arrangements on page 14.
- ❑ The DTI booklet Minimising the cost of meeting the EC Directive on EMC provides guidelines on the minimum actions required to comply with the EMC Directive and to keep down the costs in doing so.
- ❑ These booklets are available from the DTI's Business in Europe Hotline on 0117 944 4888.

Further information and guidance

- ❑ If you think that your electrical or electronic apparatus is being denied proper access to the market in other Member States, contact the DTI's Action Single Market team at the following address: Action Single Market, Department of Trade and Industry, Bay 210, Kingsgate House, 66-74 Victoria Street, London SW1E 6SW. Fax: 0171 215 4489.
- ❑ Enquiries on policy issues which need to be taken up at EC level should be addressed to: David Southerland, Department of Trade and Industry, 3.118 Red Zone, 151 Buckingham Palace Road, London SW1W 9SS.
- ❑ Where further information or guidance is required on specific questions relating to this legislation, enquirers can contact the following:

A network of regional clubs, set up under the umbrella of the DTI's EMC Awareness Campaign, are able to provide you with the expert assistance you need. These local support centres are staffed by acknowledged experts in the field who can answer your questions and provide invaluable advice on how to comply with the EMC Regulations cost effectively.
